CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader:

We gather today, grateful for the Lord's abundant blessings, for He is the Creator and Sustainer of all things.

People:

We thank You, Lord, for the harvest of the earth and the harvest of souls. Your goodness overflows in our lives.

Leader:

As we receive, so are we sent. The fields are ripe for harvest, and God calls each of us to go and share His love with the world.

People:

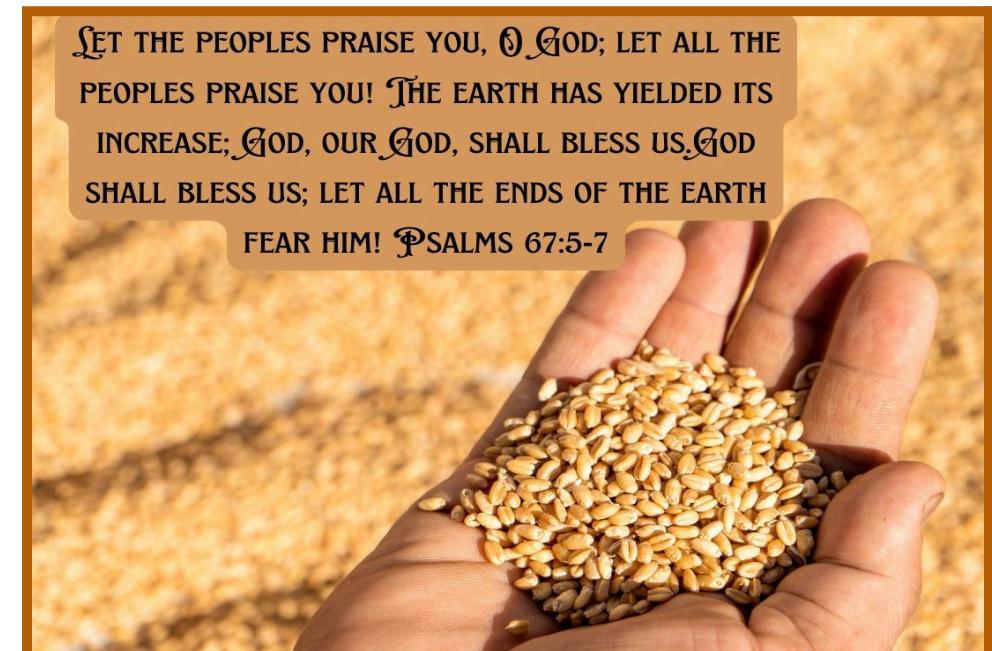

With hearts full of praise and hands ready to serve, we worship You, O Lord, with joy and thanksgiving!

All:

Let us worship the Lord of the harvest, who supplies every need and invites us into His great work of salvation.

LET THE PEOPLES PRAISE YOU, O GOD; LET ALL THE PEOPLES PRAISE YOU! THE EARTH HAS YIELDED ITS
INCREASE; GOD, OUR GOD, SHALL BLESS US. GOD
SHALL BLESS US; LET ALL THE ENDS OF THE EARTH

FEAR HIM! PSALMS 67:5-7

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: JULES GLANZER

Jules Glanzer is called many things. For almost 14 years many called him Mr. President while he served his alma mater, Tabor College, in that role. To some, he was Dr. Glanzer both as college president and seminary dean at George Fox University prior to serving at Tabor College. Others call him Dr. J, but not because of his basketball skills. Religious types are known to call him Rev. Glanzer. And some still call him Pastor Jules from 25 years of pastoring and church planting. But to most he is just Jules, a ragamuffin leader with a visionary and creative action-oriented style, who is dedicated to serving and influencing people, helping them grow and become all that God intended them to be. He is committed to living a God-arranged life by "honoring and trusting God with his life by being a person of influence, inspiring and impacting with relevance and integrity the lives of those who will influence others... one person at a time." He loves his family (wife Peg, and three grown children and spouses, and nine grandchildren), and sports (especially college sports), and baseball (avid Astros fan). If you want to push his button and end up talking hours with him, just mention the word leadership or stewardship. He believes that everything hinges on leadership and that all of life is a stewardship entrusted to us. Since retiring from the college presidency, he lives out his mission statement by serving as a senior consultant and mentor for The Timothy Group, adjunct teaching, and writing. His most recent published book is The Sound of Leadership: Kingdom Notes to Fine Tune Your Life and Influence by Invite Press.
