In Time's Gentle Hands
 By Stuart J. Curry

Time doesn't stop, nor does it stay,
 Yet those who've gone have paved our way.
 Their hands have shaped the lives we lead,
 Through love, through wisdom, every deed.

In whispered winds, their voices call,
 In etched memories, they stand tall.
 Their laughter lingers in our hearts,
 A bond of love that never parts.

Though shadows fall where they once stood,
 Their light remains, their grace, their good.
 The lessons taught, the love they shared,
 A story of lives that truly cared.

We honor lives that time can't erase,
 In time's embrace, their love remains.
 Their guiding light, a steady flame,
 Forever spoken in hearts by name.

Let us remember, hold them near,
 In every joy, in every tear.
 For though they've gone, their spirits stay,
 Guiding us still, along our way.
