Springing Forward in Faith

By Stuart J. Curry

The clock moves up, we lose an hour,
Yet God's great love is still our power.
Though weary eyes may fight the start,
His joy and strength refresh the heart.

The pews may seem a little thin,
As sleepy saints come stumbling in.
But time won't change the truth we know—
God's mercy shines and still will flow.

So rise and shine, embrace the day,
With grateful hearts, we sing and pray.
Though time may shift, one thing is true,
God's love is constant, fresh, and new!
