Remembered Still

By Stuart Curry

Time moves on, yet love remains,
 Through joy remembered, through our pains.
 Though years have passed and voices fade,
 Their lives have left what time can't trade.

We speak their names with gentle care,
 For love still lingers everywhere.
 In faithful steps and words once said,
 In paths we walk, by love they led.

Their days were woven into ours,
 Through ordinary, sacred hours.
 In work well done, in prayers once prayed,
 In quiet gifts so freely made.

Though death has closed what once we knew,
 Our hope is held in something true:
 The God of life, of grace, of light,
 Who calls His own beyond our sight.

So now we pause, our hearts made still,
 And give our thanks as always will.
 For lives once shared, for love made sure,
 Remembered still, their love endures.
